Hindolveston is about ten miles east of Fakenham, just south of the villages of Melton Constable and Briston.

The A1065 comes up to Fakenham from the south, M11 route from London.

A148 arrives at Fakenham from the west via Kings Lynn for routes from the Midlands and North.

Hindolveston is about 20 miles north west of Norwich, if this is your gateway to North Norfolk.

We are right in the centre of the village. The Street runs approximately east - west and No 45 is opposite the Foulsham Road.
